

RICH HEN, SUN-TIMES

Opportunity for a window

Robert Johnson of Architectural Artifacts Inc. removes screws Thursday from the outer iron frame holding the leaded entryway window at the Red Cross Building, 43 E. Ohio.

The art deco structure, designed by architects Childs & Smith and built in 1930, is being demolished. The company is salvaging the window, a job expected to take two days.