Stuart Grannen, owner of Architectural Artifacts, Inc., of Chicago, Illinois, will be on hand with a variety of pieces in his specialty. Here he is shown standing beside a terra cotta glazed roof-top finial (one of a pair) from the Grenada Theater (Chicago, 1926), demolished in recent months. The finial stands 54" tall, with a diameter of 30". In addition to architectural, the Antiques and Collectibles Only Market will feature a selection of glassware, pottery, quilts, advertising, and many other items.

All indications point to a strong opening show. Sill stated that if the attendance is anywhere near the response received and projections are on line, the Lebanon Antique Market could be on its way to being the major force in indoor/outdoor antique shows in the mid-west and mid-south.

The first monthly market is Saturday, April 7, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and Sunday, April 8, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. There is a $2 admission price to the public and free parking. The remaining shows in 1990 are May 5 & 6, June 2 & 3, June 30 & July 1, Aug. 4 & 5, Sept. 1 & 2, Sept. 29 & 30, and Oct. 27 & 28.
